

CASA AKAI

Description

The villa’s design invites the stunning pool views and lush surroundings into its traditional living and dining spaces, with the vast open-air palapa offering the perfect lounging spot. Private terraces connect to social zones on the ground floor, with a sala opening to an alfresco dining overlooking the bay. Revel in the tranquility of private guest quarters, plush couches under the palapa, and the calming breezes from the Bay of Banderas, all enriched by delectable homemade treats and craft cocktails.

When dinner time arrives, expect unparalleled service and culinary delights. Casa Akai’s dedicated staff, from the house manager to the mixologist, have been chosen for their expertise and passion. Dine at an eighteen-seat table, bathed in the light of towering candles, with uninterrupted sunset views. Every dish is a sensory journey, marked by freshness and quality, while the signature cocktails are nothing short of exquisite.
