

CASA ARAMARA

Description

Casa Aramara stands as the solitary ultra-luxury 5-star private estate in Punta Mita, Mexico, offering an experience designed exclusively for the most discerning guests. Newly renovated in 2022 by the hands of award-winning architect Jaime Barba and world-renowned interior designer Martyn Lawrence Bullard, this estate is the creation of media entrepreneur Joe Francis. Casa Aramara is more than just a property; it’s a private beachfront resort enveloped in acres of lush tropical gardens, boasting a private white sandy beach with warm ocean water, and incomparable seclusion. With over 30 world-class staff members at your service, the estate offers unparalleled luxury, 5-star international cuisine, endless activities, and a perfect setting for relaxation and recreation.

The name Aramara holds significance, derived from the Huichol Indians who once occupied the land, and symbolizes the Goddess of Life in their culture. This essence of creation and life permeates through the resort, providing an atmosphere that feels like a sanctuary a million miles away from anywhere, though it’s just over two hours by air from Los Angeles. The combination of natural beauty, luxurious amenities, and an attentive bilingual staff ensures that Casa Aramara defines “paradise.” Those lucky enough to experience this exclusive destination will forever hold the memories of their time spent at this extraordinary estate.
