

CASA MAJANI

Description

From the innovative designs of architects Manolo Mestre and Juan Collignon, Casa Majani emerges on the Punta Mita peninsula, offering a striking connection between the Pacific Ocean and man-made beauty. Guests enjoy two connecting infinity pools, a ground-level fire pit, a surfboard bar, and a grand palapa hosting the living and dining terrace. The estate also provides a tropical wood dining table under a vaulted ceiling, surrounded by native art, and a view that captures the imagination. It’s a haven that weaves space, style, and natural light into a seamless living experience.

Casa Majani’s luxurious amenities extend to Wi-Fi, high-speed internet, and large flat-screen TVs, ensuring that guests can remain connected to the outside world while enjoying a one-of-a-kind vacation. The tasteful furnishings and open concept design offer a harmonious blend of comfort and elegance. Whether exploring the local attractions, lounging in plush interiors, or embracing the breathtaking outdoor scenery, Casa Majani epitomizes the essence of a luxurious vacation, providing an experience that travelers will treasure.
