

PALMASOLA

Description

Palmasola, a breathtaking 25,000 sq. ft. private retreat, stands adjacent to the Four Seasons Resort in Punta Mita, just outside of Puerto Vallarta. With unending ocean views and an overlook of the famous “Tail of the Whale” hole on the neighboring Jack Nicklaus Signature Golf Course, this villa is a mini-resort in itself, encompassing a fitness center, media room, business center, private massage room, and an exceptional 15-person bilingual staff. Designed in classic coastal Mexican style, the multiple buildings are laid out in a serene village-like setting, surrounded by lush tropical landscaping, offering a flawless blend of privacy and luxury. Whether it’s a family gathering or a trip with colleagues, Palmasola promises an ultimate beachfront retreat.

Booking a stay at Palmasola through Elegant Mexico provides a well-appointed home away from home that connects adventurers to the local fun, amazing amenities, and stunning views. With open-concept floor plans ideal for large groups, guests can effortlessly move between living, dining, entertainment, and resting areas, or transition from indoor living spaces to outdoor seating through large floor-to-ceiling windows and retractable walls. The tasteful furnishings balance home-inspired comforts with vibrant aesthetics, including plush sofas, decorative tilework, and innovative lighting. With access to Wi-Fi and high-speed internet for sharing photos or streaming entertainment, Palmasola ensures every aspect of a customized stay in Mexico is taken care of, allowing guests to relax and enjoy their vacation to the fullest.
