Description

RITZ-CARLTON RESERVE RESIDENCE AT ZADÚN

Experience the ultimate getaway at Zadún, a Ritz-Carlton Reserve, where stunning residences offer privacy, cultural immersion, and breathtaking views of white sands and turquoise waters. The beachfront Grand Reserve Villa, with five beautifully appointed guestrooms and sweeping ocean views, stands as the resort’s crown jewel, providing a true home-away-from-home with the unmatched service of Zadún.

The Residences at Zadún pay homage to the beauty, culture, and heritage of Los Cabos, offering magnificent views and impeccably designed accommodations. These private homes combine the delights of a luxurious resort with the comforts of a private retreat. With five bedrooms, direct beach access, and supreme privacy, these homes promise an unforgettable getaway where visitors can immerse themselves in the natural beauty of the Sea of Cortes. Designed by Uribe Kraye, Zadún showcases a modern expression of Mexican design, featuring handcrafted elements from artisans across Mexico. The Grand Reserve Villa boasts five impeccably designed bedrooms, walk-in closets, several bathrooms, outdoor terraces, a private gym, and more, providing the perfect space for relaxation, entertainment, and cherished memories with loved ones.
